

Are you kidding? If this passes it's just another example of how the government doesn't care about the people, just about padding their own pockets. Get a clue and do what's right. Protect the consumer!